

IFCN Scholarships for Young Clinical Neurophysiologists

The IFCN is pleased to announce two scholarships each of $25,000 US for young clinical neurophysiologists wishing to spend a limited time in a neurophysiological laboratory with National/International reputation. Applicants must be 35 years of age, or less, and are expected to advance their training in Clinical Neurophysiology and/or participate in a research project. Applicants from economically disadvantaged countries will be given preference.

Applicants must attach:

- A Curriculum Vitae and list of publications
- Copy of identity card or passport with date of birth
- Description of the goal of the stay or of the intended project (1 page)
- Letter of recommendation of the home institution
- Letter of acceptance of the host institution

The IFCN requires a final report to be sent within 3 months after completing the scholarship.

The Executive Committee of the IFCN will judge applications and its decision is final

Deadline for submission is January 31, 2011
(date of receipt).

Please send your application to the Secretariat of the IFCN via e mail or mail.
